DEADLINE TO WITHDRAW:

Primary Election Deadline: Any candidate in a primary election may withdraw from the election by filing a notarized notice of withdrawal with the secretary of state before 4:30 p.m. on the seventh day after the close of the qualifying period.

General Election Deadline: Any candidate in a general election may withdraw from the election by filing a notarized notice of withdrawal with the secretary of state before 4:30 p.m. on the ninth day after the date of the primary election. A candidate in a general election for a party primary office may withdraw from the election by filing notice of his withdrawal with the secretary of state prior to 4:30 p.m. on the ninth day after the second party primary election date, regardless of whether a second party primary election is held.

Notwithstanding the deadlines listed above, if the number of candidates remaining in a primary, second party primary, or general election for a public office is one more than the number of persons to be elected to the office, the secretary of state shall accept a notice of withdrawal if filed prior to 4:30 p.m. on the second business day prior to early voting.
